

A LEGACY OF LAUGHTER

THE STORY OF CIRCO CIRCUS FUNLAND

A journey

In 1993, in the vibrant city of Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, Maria Luisa Fuentes Sánchez and her husband, Hernán Carrasco Castillo, embarked on a journey that would bring joy and wonder to audiences across the Americas. They had two daughters, Nickitta and Denisse, who have also embraced the family legacy as artists, perpetuating the rich tradition established by their parents.

Maria Luisa, hailing from a lineage rich with circus tradition spanning five generations of the Fuentes and Gasca families, inherited a legacy unmatched in the world of entertainment. With over 30 circuses collectively, this family chain had traversed the breadth of the American continent, from the United States to Mexico, Central and South America, leaving a trail of laughter and awe in its wake.

Lineage rich with circus tradition

Hernán Carrasco's roots in the circus world were equally deep, beginning in his native Chile, particularly in the bustling capital, Santiago. His journey as a clown started in his grandfather's circus, The Great Lince Circus, before he eventually joined the illustrious Circus Fuentes Gasca, solidifying his place in circus history as both a clown and an acrobat.

The union of Maria and Hernán in 1989, amidst the colorful backdrop of Cali, Colombia, marked the genesis of a new chapter in their lives. Together, they decided to forge their path, establishing their own circus in Guadalajara. From there, they crisscrossed Mexico, entertaining audiences far and wide, until they made their inaugural performance in the United States in 2002, under various monikers like "Bobo Fuentes Productions" and "Broadway Circus."

The pinnacle of their achievements came in 2008 when the Fuentes Gasca family performed a trapeze act for none other than Princess Stephanie of Monaco and the prestigious International Festival of Montecarlo. Nickitta, daughter of Maria and Hernán, was invited to join her relatives in the 32nd edition of this renowned festival, contributing to the family's legacy of aerial artistry and earning the esteemed Princess Stephanie Special Award.

In upholding their commitment to excellence, Circo Circus Funland, under the banner of Ziccolonee Entertainment, continues to delight audiences worldwide, with a special focus on the United States and Mexico. With a promise of the finest performers, comedians, and clowns, they invite all to experience the magic of their circus firsthand. So, prepare for a spectacle like no other, as Circo Circus Funland brings laughter, surprises, and fun for the whole family to your town.

Thank you for sharing your story and the magic of the circus with us.

For those who wish to stay connected and follow their journey, please visit the Facebook page: Circo Circus Events (<https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=61554424139021&mibextid=LQQJ4d>)

+1 (702) 743-0459